Motion Picture Stars Become Aviators

OWEN MOORE AND MARGUERITE COURTOT, FAMOUS PLAYERS STARS IN PARAMOUNT PICTURES.

Owen Moore and Marguerite Courtot are beginning to take a rare interest in aviation. In fact, they read the papers every day with a view to ascertaining just which factor contributes the most to the sudden demise of the aviator on the other side—shell fire or loss of equilibrium. The point is, that Director Henderson is going to send these Famous Players stars up in an aeroplane in their next picture and they are trying to figure out what their chances are of ever playing in another Paramount picture.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH TO FIGHT LIQUOR TRAFFIC

House of Deputies Adopts Resolution Sanctioning Any Moves Against the Evil.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 25.—The Episcopal house of deputies adopted a resolution giving church sanction to any movement against the liquor traffic. The house of bishops must concur. The conference issued an invitation to American Jews to enter the Episcopal church, retaining their own customs and modes of worship. The house of deputies concurred in the bishops resolution containing this invitation.
